“Whoever works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.”

Proverbs 28:19 (ESV)

“Your land is what I have given you ... it’s already in your possession ... your ministry ... your spouse ... your family ... your revelation ... your authority ... your position ... your anointing ... your possessions ... your income.”

“There are indeed more storms on the horizon, but don’t be afraid. While the world is distracted with these storms and many related issues, you will advance and take territory for the kingdom of God. Many disciples will be made of those who are fearful of the storms, and many house churches will be planted. Those who seek Me, and follow My voice, will go forward as others go backward. They will be strengthened while others are weakened. They will be protected while others are exposed. There will be a clear dichotomy. Those who follow Me will be safe, secure, and blessed, but many who thought they were safe will lose ground and become afraid, realizing how vulnerable they really are. Call on Me, says the Lord, and I will be your safe haven.”

“This has been a season of pruning, pruning in preparation of great fruitfulness. And still, there is more pruning yet to be done. But now, in this new season, the fruitfulness for which you were pruned will begin to come forth. The firstfruits of your obedience will be seen, and felt, and enjoyed. The evidence of what you prophesied will begin to be revealed. For you were obedient in the season of pruning, of uprooting, and releasing, and now you will begin experiencing the restoration and the increase. For when I speak, says the Lord, I will surely bring it to pass for those who listened to Me.”

“Now is not the time to be alone ... to attempt to run this race by yourself. Two are better than one. Not only will the two receive a good reward for their collaborative labor, but if one falls or is weakened, the other will hold them up. I am strengthening current partnerships and also bringing about new ones. Many who have been isolated, or running unilaterally, I am now bringing into partnerships. What you give up to be in partnership will be dwarfed by what you will gain in strength, time, and effectiveness. Don’t join forces with just anyone. Allow Me to lead you, for I already have a plan, says the Lord.”

“It’s time to put in the sickle. It’s time to go into the fields and reap a harvest. The Holy Spirit is hovering over the ocean of people. He is stirring up circumstances to get their attention. His purpose is to save them, to help them, and to deliver them. Our part must be coordinated with His. We must act promptly at His command. As He shakes the tree, our baskets must be ready and in place. This is the beginning of a great harvest. These are the first fruits.”

“Many of My children are wondering, thinking about, and praying for Me to do things for them in this next season, but they aren’t wondering, thinking, or praying about things THEY will do to advance the kingdom of God. Doesn’t My Word say, ‘Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you’? And yet, they continue to pursue their own needs, their own desires, and their own pleasures. It is My pleasure to protect, care for, heal, and provide for My people, but I am not obligated to do these things for those who won’t obey Me. I am calling My children to serve Me. The time is short, and many people’s eternal destinies are on the line. Allow Me to lead you. I am your Shepherd. If you follow Me, I will make you lie down in green pastures. I will lead you beside still waters. I will restore Your soul. I will spread a table before you in the presence of your enemies. And your cup will overflow. Submit yourself to Me. Change course. Yield to My will for your life. Fulfill your calling. And I will be faithful to do My part, says the Lord.”

“I will protect you and your family. I will show you how and when to prepare and what to do.”

“Don’t be afraid. I will hide you when the time comes.”

“I am leading you to reap many harvests you did not plant. They are Mine, but they are rotting in the fields. Rush in quickly and reap them.”

“Pay attention to what the Lord does and does not do, and don’t believe everyone’s opinions nor their interpretations of events. The Lord will reveal things to His prophets.”

“Harvest is coming, says the Lord. Great harvest. I am accelerating things. I have gone before you and have made the crooked places straight. I have touched many hearts and am calling people to align with you. My Spirit is hovering over the fields. My angelic hosts will march with you and fight for you. Pray big. Prophecy big. Think big. Plan big. And take big actions to reap My harvests. For I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will surely bring it to pass for those who trust in Me. I will even give cities to those who ask for them in faith and who have hearts fully yielded to Me.”

“I am bringing blessing on certain ministries. My Spirit will dwell powerfully among them, and My words shall be in their mouths. I will whistle and gather people to them. The wind of My Spirit shall blow them in by the hundreds. Their hearts shall be drawn to the word of the Lord and to the safety and strength of My presence. Come, says the Lord, and be such a ministry!”

“Be fruitful and multiply. I have given you EVERYTHING you need. Be bold. Be confident. Cast the vision with faith and joy. Prepare to both be fruitful and to multiply everywhere.”
